MOTHERS EAT FOR FREE AT GILGAMESH!

Acclaimed Pan-Asian restaurant Gilgamesh is welcoming mothers on Mother's Day with a very special treat.

On Sunday 14th March mothers will receive their entire meal on a complimentary basis, allowing devoted offspring to spoil them in an extremely economical way! The only rules are that only one mother is allowed per table for bookings of four and more.

Mothers can tuck into a delicious three-course meal for free, while their guests can enjoy it all for a reasonable £30 per person. Dishes include; Clear Essence of Tomato, Cardamon and Lobster, Gilgamesh's signature Duck and Watermelon salad and Den Miso Baked Salmon with Lime, Cauliflower Purée and Spiced Sorrel. Mums can round off their perfect meal with a stunning Tropical Fruit Mousse served with Passion Fruit Jelly. The menu is available for both lunch and dinner on Mother's Day.

One lucky mum and their guest will also win the chance for a one-off masterclass with celebrated Executive Chef, Ian Pengelley.

So go on, spoil your mother and bring her to Gilgamesh this Mother's Day.
