TATLER RESTAURANT AWARDS

- Ian Pengelley's friends might want to avoid the restaurateur's trophy cabinet. The redhead's new Asian venue, Gilgamesh, picked up the Most Original Restaurant award at the Tatler magazine restaurant awards at the Dorchester last night. But he told theBuzz: "I'm going back to my restaurant now to piss in this pot I've just won."...General manager Fred Sirieix picked up the Best Front of House award for Galvin at Windows – and was sent straight back to work to deal with a packed restaurant...
- Le Caprice's legendary Jesus Adorno won a lifetime achievement award...
- Other winners included The Wolseley, for Restaurant of the Year, Le Gavroche, for the Most consistently Excellent award, and L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon, for the Best "It" Room award.
